SUBJECT : Joint Study Group Recommendation No. 13

REFERENCES : (a) Action memorandum for the DTR from DD/S, dated 9 February - Subject: Report to the President on Implementation of Recommendations of the Joint Study Group

(b) Memorandum for the AC/DCI through the DD/S
from the DTR - Subject: Joint Study Group
Recommendation No. 13, dated 25 September 1961

1. This memorandum, submitted in response to the request contained in Reference (a), reports the status of action by the Office of Training in connection with Joint Study Group Recommendation No. 13 since the transmittal of Reference (b).

2. Upon the invitation of the DTR, [ ] DIA, visited [ ] on 14-15 November along with the AC/DCI and his Staff. During this visit it was generally agreed that DTR could take no further action on JSG Recommendation No. 13 until DIA was prepared to deal with the question of training in intelligence activities within the Department of Defense.

3. On 21 November, at the request of [ ] DTR and C/PPS met with [ ] Lt. Colonel J. H. Cushman, USA, and Major A. C. Greenleaf, USAF, of Mr. Solis Horwitz's office, to discuss various aspects of Recommendation No. 13. At this meeting DTR was informed that General Joseph F. Carroll had named [ ], USA, as the Director of Training for DIA. [ ] reporting date in this capacity was not firm, but DTR was told that he would be responsible for representing DIA's interests in working with us in effecting the solution of problems presented by Recommendation No. 13. A memorandum for the record of this meeting was sent to the AC/DCI.

4. On 26 January [redacted] met with A/DTR and C/OS/TR and was invited to visit the [redacted] [redacted] accepted the invitation for a date to be worked out later. He informed A/DTR that Mr. Horwitz's office has issued a series of directives to the service components against a 15 February deadline. The responses to these directives are to provide DIA with the basis for entering into negotiations with OTR on JSG Recommendation No. 13. This is as far as OTR can go until DIA is prepared to enter into detailed negotiations on this subject. We have no indication at this time as to how soon after 15 February DIA will be ready to initiate negotiations.
